

Federal Civilian Employee Scholarship Program

Since 2019 First Command Educational Foundation (FCEF) is announcing has awarded three $1,000 scholarships to Federal Civilian Employees or their dependents. The Federal Civilian Employee Scholarship is open to both to traditional and non-traditional students. If you meet the following criteria, complete the scholarship application (pages 2-4 of this document) and submit it, along with the other required documentation to scholarships@fcef.com. There is NO application fee. Incomplete applications will not be considered. Applications are only accepted March 1 to April 15 annually.

Eligibility/Criteria

1. TRADITIONAL STUDENT:

- a. Must be a dependent* of a currently employed Federal Civilian Employee and a high school senior or current college student planning to attend or return to an undergraduate or graduate school, or accredited trade school. (Dependent is defined as children up to age 26 who rely on their parents as a primary source of income.*)
- b. Students must have at least a 3.5 grade-point average (or equivalent).
- c. Must demonstrate an active role in community and volunteer activities.
- d. Must complete FCEF's free financial literacy course, Basic\$4ALL (online), available on our website.
- e. Must include basic transcript from current school with application.

2. NON-TRADITIONAL STUDENT:

- a. Currently employed Federal Civilian Employee* who is planning to attend or return to an undergraduate or graduate school, or accredited trade school to improve career advancement opportunities. (Federal Civilian Employee is defined as a person working directly for the federal government. Active duty military members are not considered civilian employees.*)
- b. Must provide at least two letters of recommendation from current or previous supervisor with application.
- c. Must demonstrate an active role in community and volunteer activities.
- d. Must complete FCEF's free financial literacy course, Basic\$4ALL (online), available on our website.
- e. Must include copy of current resume with application.

Questions and inquiries can be directed to scholarships@fcef.com

